An experiential tour of the landscape, tradition and taste of the special coffees of the municipalities of Filandia, Quimbaya, Montenegro, Pueblo Tapao and Armenia. This route begins on the coffee highway at the Cruces stop at the site called "El Tambo", a place full of history and ancestral memories, which recreates the resting place of the muleteers and their mules in the colonial era. A meeting point to taste the first cup of coffee or enjoy the variety of products based on this delicious drink at the point of sale of Café Quindío.

Café Finca Villa Laura – Sevilla, Valle del Cauca

In the mountains of the Cordillera Central, in Seville, the Coffee Capital of Colombia grows the softest coffee in the world, the coffee tradition of the Salgado Aguirre family is born, which for more than 45 years as entrepreneurs and four generations working in the cultivation of coffee, has maintained its ancestral production processes that result in an excellent quality coffee, now shown in its best expression. Our grains go through five manual selections: harvesting of the best fruits in the crop, manual selection of cherry coffee, parchment coffee, green coffee (threshed) and roasted coffee, which ensures that you are carrying your palate ... of our beans Only the best of our tradition and origin.
