

Resolucin de conflictos e industrias extractivas:

Justicia Global y Derechos Humanos

Understanding and managing conflicts between extractive industries and local communities in the era of Global Justice

International Congress

8-9 March 2018

DAY ONE

8h00 - 8h30 Registration process

8h30 - 9h00 Inauguration of the event

Juan Carlos Henao. Rector, Universidad Externado de Colombia

Luis Ferney Moreno. Director Departamento de Derecho Mnero - Energtico, Universidad Externado de Colombia.

Session 1

Panel 1: Preventing and solving disputes in the era of Global Justice

9h00 - 10h30

- Globalization with responsibility (Global Justice theory)
Dr Yenny Vega Cardenas, University of Montreal & Prof. Patricia Urteaga, PUCP Peru
- Legal framework for preventing and solving disputes in Colombia
Jose Manuel Alvarez, Lecturer, Universidad Externado de Colombia.
- Reimagining Canada's approach to solving human rights related disputes involving transnational companies and local communities
Prof. Amissi Manirabona, University of Montreal
- Mexico: Towards a new framework for solving mining related conflicts
Prof. Luis Jos Bejar, Universidad Panamericana

Moderator: Luis Bustos, Lecturer, Universidad Externado de Colombia

10h30 – 10h45 Discussion

10:45 - 11h00 Tea Break

Panel 2: Human rights protection & corporate practices in natural resources exploitation

11h00 - 12h30

- UN Guidelines on Business & Human Rights and the Acacia Mining's operations in Tanzania
Ms. Flaviana Charles, Director, Business & Human Rights, Tanzania
- International CSR Policies for the mining sector and its implementation in Colombia
Luis Bustos and Gustavo Adolfo Yepes, Researchers & Lecturers, Universidad Externado de Colombia
- Self-determination and corporate social responsibility: Reality and opportunity in Tunisia oil sector
Khadija Ben Maatoug, Lecturer, Tunis Faculty of Law and Political Sciences and University of Montreal
- The view from inside companies: The CSR practice of Ecopetrol
Juanita de la Hoz. Ecopetrol.
- Company-created mechanisms for solving disputes between mining companies and local communities: Opportunities & challenges
Dr. Catherine Coumans, Research Coordinator, Mining Watch, Canada

Moderator: Ana Paola Gutierrez, Lecturer, Universidad Externado de Colombia

Resolucin de conflictos e industrias extractivas:

Justicia Global y Derechos Humanos

*Understanding and managing conflicts between extractive industries and local communities in
the era of Global Justice*

International Congress

8-9 March 2018

12h30 – 13h00 Discussion

13:00h- 14h00 Lunch

Panel 3: From Global to Local: Indigenous peoples, Local communities and extractive industries

14h00 – 17h00

- The Veto of Local communities for Mining Activities in Colombia
Prof. Milton Montoya (Ph.D), Research Director, Departamento de Derecho Mnero-Energetico, Universidad Externado de Colombia
  - Indigenous Peoples and petroleum block 192 in the Peruvian Northern Amazon. A winding road through hegemony, resistance and emancipation
Pr. Patricia Urteaga
  - Victimization and human rights violations in the mining sector: The Belo Sun case in Brazil
Prof. Eduardo Saad-Diniz, Ribeiro Preto Law School and Program for Latin American Integration, University of So Paulo, Brazil
  - Extractive Industries in a Global Political Awakening Era: an Innu's perspective on a latent conflict with Iron Ore of Canada (IOC)
Pierre-Louis Ttu, PhD, Post-doctoral Fellow, Environment, Society and Policy Group, University of Ottawa, Canada & Prof. Frdric Lasserre, Laval University & Jackie Dawson, Environment, Society & Policy Chair (Tier II)
  - NGOs and the Empowerment of communities for the protection of Human Rights
Viviana Gonzlez Moreno, Centro de Estudios para la Justicia Social Tierra Digna (NGO Colombia) CooperAction ONG Peru
  - The perspective of Choco Communities in Colombia.
Albeiro Moya Mena. Lecturer, Universidad Externado de Colombia.
- Moderator and comments: Levy Andoque. Indigenous Leader and Attorney at Law, Universidad Externado de Colombia.

17h00 - 18h00 Questions & debate

Resolucin de conflictos e industrias extractivas:

Justicia Global y Derechos Humanos

*Understanding and managing conflicts between extractive industries and local communities in
the era of Global Justice*

International Congress

8-9 March 2018

DAY TWO

Session 2

Panel 1: Sovereignty over natural resources, State Policies, Investment Agreements and Human rights

8h30 - 10h00

- The doctrine of permanent sovereignty over natural resources (UN resolution 1803) in Tanzania Legislation.
Dr. Baraka Kanyabuhinya, Head of School of Law, University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
- Recent changes in the major mining operations in Laos
Pr. Frdric Lasserre, Universit Laval, Quebec-Canada & Eric Mottet, University of Quebec in Montral, Canada.
- Understanding and Assessing the Paramo Santurban Case
Prof. Raquel Mndez Villamizar, Industrial University of Santander
- Evolution of the jurisprudence of the Constitutional Court in Colombia: Toward an ecological constitution
Hon. Oscar Amaya, Judge, Consejo de Estado
- Arbitration and Human Rights: The Eco Oro Case-study
Dr. Yenny Vega Cardenas, Universit de Montreal

Moderator and comments: Patricia Urteaga, prf. Pontificia Universidad Catolica del Peru

10h00 - 10h30 Discussion

10h30 -10h45 Break

Panel 2: Changing paradigms: from "Development" targets to Environmental Justice

10h45 – 12h15

- Environmental Justice and Equity: A Framework
Andrea Lehner, Ph. D. Candidate, Paris Nanterre, France
- The New paradigm of nature as a subject of law: the case of Rio Atrato in Colombia
Nathalia Parra, Master Student, Universit de Montral
- The National Mining Agency role for an inclusive relation with local communities and local authorities.
Silvana Habib, Chair, Agencia Nacional de Minera
- Citizens participation and mining: Environmental Justice in the "Marmato" Case
Clara Juliana, Maestra Estudios Polticos y Relaciones Internacionales de la Universidad Nacional de Colombia.
- Mining and Territory in Colombia.
Ana Carolina Gonzalez, Lecturer, Universidad Externado de Colombia, EITI, Colombia.
- The concept of Development for Communities.
Hernan Jimenez, Social Leader and Attorney at Law

Moderator and comments: Luis Fernando Macias, Lecturer, Departamento de Derecho MineroEnergtico, Universidad Externado de Colombia.

Resolucin de conflictos e industrias extractivas:

Justicia Global y Derechos Humanos

*Understanding and managing conflicts between extractive industries and local communities in
the era of Global Justice*

International Congress

8-9 March 2018

12h15 - 12h30 Questions and Debate

Closing ceremony and presentation of the global justice partnership web site.

La Universidad se reserva el derecho a realizar ajustes y modificaciones al programa y a la nmina de conferencistas.

PONTIFICIA
UNIVERSIDAD
CATLICA
DEL PER

UQM

Universidad
Industrial de
Santander

UNIVERSIDADE DE SO PAULO
FACULTADE DE DIREITO
DE RIBEIRO PRETO

PROLAM

Facult de droit

Universit
de Montral

UNIVERSIT
LAVAL